Two more games will, be played with the same club, on April 18t and 2d. The Lawmakers will then play with the New York Americans on March 4th and 6th. The games with the Americans will give the Richmond fans an opportunity of see, ing the work of the great Chesbro, of whom so much has been written. On April 9th and 10th the Lawmakers will play Wilmington, Del. of the Tri-State League. On the following Friday and Saturday, April 12th and 13th, Baltimore, of the Eastern League, will be here.

The season will open up on April 18th, which will be about a week earlier than last year, and earlier than any other of the minor leagues will open. All the big league teams, however, are preparing to open up on April 11th.

Captain Shaffer said yesterday that neither Joe Cuddy nor Jimmy Doran will be with Richmond this year. Ho is now negotiating with the manager of the team in Sharon. Pa., of the P. and O. League, who wants an outletder and infleider. Captain Shaffer thought that Cuddy and Doran would be good men for him, and has recommended them both for positions.

Cuddy played second base here last year. He was a good batsman, but was rather slow on the bases. Doran was in the outlield. He was a fine fellow, a hard player and a good man in his position. Both of them will probably land good positions this season. Doran is at present connected with a Holyoke, Mass., business concern.

"Pug" Hicks, who played nearly every position on the team last year, has been turned over to the Danville aggregation, after the consummation of a little deal between the manager of that team and Capitain Shaffer. Hicks was a goneral utility man last season, and played both in the outlield and the infield. He was a good man with the stick, and was fine on picking up grounders. His only trouble was a weakness in the throwing arm.

MOTOR BOATS OFF IN FIRST REAL RACE

At 5 o'clock this morning slx motor-boats whose average horse power is fifteen, and length of hull, forty feet, left the Royal Palm dock and headed for the Gulf stream across Blascayne Bay. The gunboat Scorpion furnished by the Navy Department to convey the little craft, was in waiting and at 6:50 o'clock a gun on the Scorpion gave the "get ready" signal, and a second gun, at 7 o'clock, signalled the start, the six competitors heading for the open sea with the Scorpion leading.

The race will have two controls, the first at Gun Key, in the Bahamas banks and the second at Frazier Hog Key, at the edge of one Northwest channel, which is only thirty miles from Nassau. Several timers will time the arrivals at the controls, the boats making the fastest time to win the prizes, and the boats will anchor for the night at the two controls, arriving at Nassau Thursday morning. The Gulf stream, the terror of small bents, is comparatively on its good behavior to-day, and a smooth passage to the banks is anticipated. The boats are divided in two classes. The auxiliary and purely motor-boats being evenly divided. Three in each class.

NEW YORK, February 11.—King Edward has in training this year at Newmarket, under the care of Richard Marsh, two score of the best bred racers in the world. As the owner of the peerless Persimmon, who led the list of winning stallions in 1906, the King is able to mate with that famous horse each year at least a score of the extremely valuable mares which compose his stud, which is under the management of Lord Marcus Beresford.

In 1906 less than $15,000 was won by the King's horses, but this season great hopes are entertained that the twenty-four racers will roll up a respectable total winnings, Marsh trains also for Lord Wolverton, Arthur James, J. W. Larnach and two for himself, On paper the sixty-five horses under Marsh's charge should win a great deal of money this year. In King Edward's lot is the colt Perambulator, about whom there has been favorable mention for this year's Derby.
